NAFCU SERVICES CORPORATION ADDS DIGITAL DEFENSE AS A PREFERRED PARTNER

WASHINGTON—NAFCU Services Corporation announced today that it has added information security assessment and compliance management services from Digital Defense, Inc. (DDI) to the suite of solutions offered as part of the Preferred Partner program. Solutions will include Information Security Risk Assessments based on the OCTAVE® methodology, Vulnerability Management Solutions offering vulnerability scanning and two levels of vulnerability lifecycle management that include workflow management and remediation tracking, penetration testing, security content and education services for employees and members, network security architecture reviews and other types of information security services.

“We are honored that NAFCU Services chose DDI as a Preferred Partner and the company they recommend to credit unions as their trusted vendor for information security services. With over 700 credit union clients, we understand the challenges associated with providing a secure environment for financial transactions while protecting members’ confidential information,” said Larry Hurtado, president and CEO of Digital Defense. “Our security solutions coupled with our Software as a Service (SaaS) technology also ease the burdens associated with regulatory compliance, allowing credit union management to spend more time focused on growth and other competitive business challenges.”

As a leading provider of information security assessment services and risk management solutions, Digital Defense offers a wide variety of industry standard, well-defined services and market-specific security and compliance-oriented packages designed to fit a credit union’s unique needs and budgetary requirements.

“Assuring the security and integrity of sensitive data is mission-critical for credit unions. Identifying preferred partners with security-related solutions has been, and will continue to be, a major focus for NAFCU Services,” said David Frankil, president of NAFCU Services Corporation. “The strong reputation for service and support, breadth of offerings, and wide credit union industry substantiation of DDI made choosing them as our preferred partner for information security services an easy decision.”

Digital Defense is also facilitating the first Credit Union Extreme Hacker Challenge, which allows security professionals to emulate a hacker for a day. The event will take place at the NAFCU Technology and Security Conference, Feb. 25-28 in Las Vegas at Planet Hollywood.
